

In Memory of Mr. Harley

A BRIDGE BETWEEN MCDONOGH
SCHOOL AND SEIJO GAKUEN

It is with deep sadness that Seijo Gakuen Junior and Senior High School shares the news of the passing of Mr. David Harley, a beloved educator and a treasured friend of our school community.

For more than forty years, Mr. Harley played an important role in building and nurturing the friendship between McDonogh School and Seijo Gakuen. What began as an exchange between two schools grew into a meaningful and lasting connection that has influenced countless students and teachers on both sides.

Mr. Harley first visited Seijo Gakuen in the early years of our exchange program, and since then, he has continued to be a wonderful ambassador of friendship and cultural understanding. Through his kindness, curiosity, and warm personality, he helped students experience the joy of connecting with people across cultures.

Many Seijo students and teachers remember Mr. Harley's warm smile, his thoughtful words, and his genuine interest in our school and our students. For many of us, he was not only a partner in our exchange program, but also a dear friend who made the world feel a little smaller and more connected.

Mr. Harley's legacy will live on through the friendship between our two schools and through the many students and teachers whose lives have been enriched by this special connection.

We extend our deepest condolences to Mr. Harley's family and loved ones. He will always be fondly remembered at Seijo Gakuen.
